Call Is Issued for Rail Mentors' Meet

The call for the twenty-third annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, to be held in Washington five days beginning October 10, was issued today by the secretary of the association, W. H. Connolly, of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

noily, of the Interstate Commerce Com-mission.

The convention will hold its sessions in the offices of the Interstate Com-merce Commission. The coming meeting oromises to be of much importance, es-pecially in view of the great question of whether the States have the power to regulate intra-State rates raised by the Judge Sanborn decision.

This year, the convention will remain in session longer than usual. It has generally met for three days. So many important topics are to come up, how-ever, that a five-day session will be held.

MICHIGAN AVENUE LOTS to be Placed Upon the Market Watch for Full Page Details in The Washington Times

THERE will be placed upon the market within a week or ten days a valuable tract of city lots, to be known as the MICHIGAN AVENUE ADDITION, situated amidst a cultured and refined home community which has gradually grown up by its own natural beauties and advantages. The prices at which these lots are to be sold will open the eyes of the public with wonder.

198 Per Lot and Upwards if Desired Certificate of Title Free

The prices will be the lowest for lots in the District of Columbia; add to this the best transportation service and the most refined environment. We would advise home buyers and investors to see and study the location and surroundings of this beautiful subdivision before opening day.

LLIONS OF DOLLARS HAVE BEEN SPEN

For improvements in the immediate neighborhood and many more millions will be expended in the near future.

COME OUT TODAY

Remember that there are no other lots in the District of Columbia to compare with these in location and price, therefore let your good judgment guide you and let your decision be QUICK.

Take Brookland car and get off at the Red Subdivision adjacent to the beautiful grounds of the Catholic University of America.
